NEWS LETTERS FROM BULLETIN REPRESENTATIVES

WILLIMANTIC

Warrant issued for Chaplin Man for Alleged Attempted Assault.

The town of Chaplin is stirred over recent happenings, in which the brother of First Selectman Charles Twiss is implicated to such an extent that a warrant has been issued for his arrest.
Mr. Twiss is about fifty years of age and the father of a grown-up family. He has lived for a number of years on what is known as the Handle Robinson place in the Natchaug district. Late last Thursday afternoon Twiss went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shippee, who live on the back road off the village street, sent Mrs. Shippee's two children out of the house, locked and bolted the door, and seized Mrs. Shippee and assaulted her. It is said that he also made ungentlemanly proposals to her. Mrs. Shippee was able to defend herself and forced Twiss to leave the house, a fortunate thing for him, as Mr. Shippee arrived home soon after. Mr. Shippee was naturally much wrought up over the liberties that Twiss had taken with his wife.

The affair was reported to the town authorities and a warrant was issued for his arrest. In some way Twiss got wind of the fact, skipped out, and his whereabouts are at present unknown, although the authorities in all surrounding towns have been notified and are on the lookout for the man.

IN NORWICH JAIL

Oliver Kingsley of Lebanon for Snaring Birds.

Deputy Sheriff C. B. Noyes of Lebanon came to this city Thursday morning and took Oliver Kingsley, arrested Wednesday evening on a warrant charging him with snaring birds in the Liberty Hill section of the town of Lebanon Saturday and Sunday, back to that town and had him arraigned before Justice of the Peace Myron Abel. Kingsley entered a plea of not guilty to both counts. Three witnesses testified that they saw Kingsley setting snares last Saturday and Sunday on land of Chester Holmes in Exeter that was posted. Justice Abel found the accused guilty and imposed a fine of $25, beating on each count, a total of $50. Being unable to pay, Kingsley was committed to the county jail at Norwich to work his fine out.

Uriel M. Bowers.

The funeral of Uriel M. Bowers was held Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of his daughter, in North Franklin street. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. H. A. Special Town Meeting Called.

A special town meeting has been called for Saturday afternoon, November 24, to ratify the agreement of appropriations of $3,000 for state highway, $5,000 for an outside heating plant at the new Windham high school and $1500 for the reassignment of and revaluation of the town's taxable property, all of which appropriations were voted at the last special town meeting.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

Meeting at Home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stiles Reports for Busy Year.

The annual meeting and tea of the Needlework guild was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stiles on Thursday, November 15, afternoon. Their beautiful home was thrown open to the public and at 3 p. m. a large number had gathered. Upright pianos were given up to the display of the garments sent in by the ladies of Willimantic. The garments were all new and included everything wearable from hats to shoes. Noticeable among them was a table piled high with stockings.

Mrs. A. C. Scripture gave a brief address of welcome, noticing especially that the clergyman of the town was present. She read a report of the work done by the Needlework Guild of America, of which Willimantic is a branch, speaking particularly of the death of Mrs. Charles D. Hamlin of Chicago, who was the national president. At the close of her report, Mrs. Mahurn, secretary for the guild, read the annual report, and made special mention of the fact that there had been a gain in the work from last year, for in 1933 646 garments had been given and this year 855, a net gain of nine garments.

Mrs. D. C. Barrows, treasurer, reported that there had been a gain in paying members in the guild. During the year $27 had been spent and the guild has on deposit $427. The interest of the afternoon was centered in the report of the city missionary, Mrs. Edson. Mrs. Edson has been in this office for nine years. Everyone agrees that she is the right person in the right place. She spoke of the loyal assistance of the individual and also the supply her demands. She reported 23 filled baskets given out at Thanksgiving and Christmas, 83 hats supplied, of toys and games and other small gifts, 321 pairs of stockings, 4,800. She had made 336 calls and had received 669 calls from persons on city mission work.

Mrs. Edson reported 784 new garments and 1,315 old garments, making a handsome total of 2,047 garments given to the needy. Between reports, Miss Hunt rendered two fine piano solos at the close the visitors were invited into the dining room where Mrs. George K. Anderson, Mrs. John E. Brick and Mrs. Robert C. White assisted by the Misses Larabee and Miss Thompson, served tea and cake. An offering was taken for the work of the guild.

Mr. Young May Retire.

It is reported that Young's hotel is to be sold or rented. Two men were in the city Thursday looking over the property with a view to either purchasing or renting it.

Mr. Young has been in the hotel business in this city for many years and has been doing a fine business. It is claimed that he proposes to retire from active business.

STOLE LADLE.

Gave It to His Mother for Birthday Present.

Caterer E. L. Prince reported to Capt. E. H. Richmond Wednesday the loss of a silver punch ladle that was stolen from him while he was serving refreshments at the new annual dance in Town hall, Friday evening, October 23.

Mr. Prince did not know who the man was who purloined the ladle, that was inscribed by his name, but could furnish a fair description. The captain got busy and found out that the fellow had distributed programmes at the dance.

Wednesday night he went to the home of the man's mother in the Yellow row and found the ladle. The mother said that her son had given the ladle to her for a birthday present. Thursday morning the captain learned that the man was in town and posted the officers. In the afternoon of October 24, Officer Weeks brought in Wilford Charroux, aged 19, to the station house, where he was locked up and will be arraigned this morning for petty larceny. Charroux lives in Forrestdale, R. I., and has a wife there. He comes to this city frequently and will jump out again and stay away for a spell and then come back. He has been arrested once before by the local authorities. The time was December 29, 1926, and the charge was larceny. Execution of judgment was suspended at that time because it was a first offense and in view of the lad's age.

The young man's mother is married again and her husband says that the lad is a bad lot and should steal anything that was not tied down. It is said that he married a woman of questionable character in Forrestdale, R. I., where he makes his home at present. He worked in No. 4 mill in this city at one time.

Various Items.

Prof. W. O. Turner attended the funeral of R. H. White in Providence, on Thursday, November 15, and took for the funeral by the venerable club of Windham, the deceased being a member.

Mayor D. P. Dunn has issued the warning for the city meeting.

The pot roast supper served in the A. M. E. Zion mission under the auspices of the ladies' aid society Thursday evening proved a most appetizing repast. There was a large attendance and the ladies well repaid for the work they did in preparing and serving the supper.

Fascinating Pianist Had Crooked Ways.

Irresistible George, the clever piano player, who has been doing stunts for some time at a local theater, has left town and there are those who would like to see him very much. The captivating fellow so worked himself into the good graces of many of the people in town that he established a regular banker's credit, on a small scale, and many are now lamenting their liberality. One fellow loaned George a ten, several others a five or less. He had no difficulty in borrowing almost at will, so pleasing was his person and manner. He would like to see him for something like $30, the result of allowing him to have clothes and furnishings. The fellow's landlady is also anxious to learn his whereabouts and a restaurant man would also like to receive something for a bunch of meal tickets. One obliging chap loaned George an elegant dress suit case and is thinking not exactly pleasant things about the slick youngster. It is said that the dandy piano player left town Sunday and it is also hinted that if he is still within the confines of the state will be brought back under arrest for having defrauded a boarding house keeper. The moving picture proprietor has engaged a man to take the missing pianist's place.

JEWETT CITY

F. B. L. Social With Novel Features—D. A. R. Chapter Meets With Mrs. Charles E. Spicer—Basketball Game Won by Danielson.

Jewett City council, No. 31, F. B. L. held its first social of this season on Thursday evening in the room in Pinn's block and the attention in the room was a refreshment booth planned by Mrs. Neilbert Myott. It was arranged as a rustic scene with a white frame and green lattice which lighted the framework of the house was of white crepe paper decorated with silver tinsel and ornaments. The windows were daintily draped with white curtains and the room was freshened with paper napkins, those for the ladies containing an additional lollypop and for the gentlemen cigars. An artistic silver and white sign with the order's seal on either end surmounted the booth with the words "The Fraternal Benefit League." On one side was a white table with a green cloth and climbing roses, enclosing a real garden of ferns and flowers, and on the other were fir trees over which the moon and stars shone in realistic style. The order's emblem and seal and a sign of welcome, arranged in the national colors, were upon the walls of the room.

After the business meeting there was an entertainment program which was opened by eleven ladies marching in singing The Distant Chimes. These ladies were Misses Theresa Kane, Alice McBroome, Grace Bicknell, Mabel McBroome, Mary Kane, Lillian Jones, Elizabeth Whiting, Ada Davis, Mrs. Lena Coles, Katherine Babcock and Miss Ida Foster. Miss Emma Babcock played a piano solo and also the accompaniments. Mrs. Charles Gardner read Piny Pratt's Apron and Miss Ida Davis and Charles Gardner sang Grandmother's Love Letters as a duet. After the refreshments the young ladies sang again. There were remarks by Supreme Guide E. B. Worthington of Norwich and by Supreme Organizer Roderick McNeil of New Haven and Supreme Secretary Frank E. Tyler of New Haven. John R. Gorman presided as chairman of the evening, joining the exercises with a brief speech.

The refreshments were served by Mrs. Peter Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Olsen, Horace Myott, Misses Zilda Sullivan and Mary Tinker. The committee in charge were Misses Ada Davis and Flossie Jackson and Mrs. Neilbert Myott. The guests from out of town were the supreme officers mentioned above.

D. A. R. Chapter Hears Historic Paper—Anne Brewster Fanning chapter, D. A. R., met at Mrs. Charles E. Spicer's on Wednesday afternoon. In the absence of the regent, Miss Martha Brewster, who was ill, the business meeting was postponed. Mrs. J. H. Tracy read an interesting paper on the famous Indian battle in Norwich, when the English first came to Connecticut. They found the Indian tribes more or less quarrelsome. To understand the history of the settlement of Norwich one needs to bear in mind the relationship of four tribes—the Pequots, living on the shores of Long Island sound, including the territory now occupied by New London, Groton, and Stonington; the Narragansetts, living to the east of the Pequot territory; the Niantics, living to the west of the Pequots, where Lyme and Saybrook are; the Mohegans, living where Norwich now lies. Uncas, the chief of the Mohegans, married in 1526 the daughter of the Pequot sachem, thus allying himself more closely with the tribe.

He was restless and ambitious and continually in trouble, but always regained his lands. In April, 1637, the Pequots made an attack upon Westerfield, which caused war to be declared against them. Through Major John Mason and Roger Williams the Mohegans and Narragansetts became united against the Pequots. In an attack made on the latter's fort, out of seven hundred Indians, only seven escaped and seven were taken prisoners. A treaty was later signed between the English and the Mohegans and Narragansetts at Hartford, but the jealousy of the two sachems—Uncas and Miantonomo—soon led to open war. Each tried to gain the sympathy of the white men, but Uncas was more successful.

The land upon which the settlement of Norwich was afterward made, lying between the territory of the Narragansetts on the east and the Mohegans on the west, became the battleground of those two tribes. War broke out in 1643. Uncas met the other tribe on what is now near Great Oakes and suggested that he and Miantonomo fight it out in single combat. Miantonomo suspected some crafty artifice and would not consent. Uncas gave the signal for battle to the Mohegans and the Narragansetts were taken by surprise and were worsted. Miantonomo in his flight reached the spot now known as Sachem's Plain and was captured.

Orrine Cured Him of DRUNKENNESS

Her Husband Now Spends His Evenings at Home.

She bought Orrine from the druggist in her home town—she bought it after reading the Orrine Book. She took the Book she read of the wonderful cures of drunkenness which were accomplished by the aid of Orrine. On page ten of the Book she read the liberal guarantee to refund all money paid for Orrine if it failed to effect a cure. After reading the Book she became convinced that Orrine was a remedy of unusual merit. She decided to purchase it and cure her husband of drunkenness. Orrine cured him. Now she is a happy wife in a happy home. Orrine helped to purchase the home. Read the following letter from Walter Schmidt, Co., 44 Canal St., Grand Rapids, Mich.

"For a number of years we have been agents for Orrine. During that time we have had occasion to be convinced, beyond a doubt, that Orrine is a reputable remedy, worthy of a recommendation. One of the many cases coming to our attention, a mechanic earning $12.50 per week, who had not taken a full day's work for over five years, was induced to try Orrine. A complete cure being the result. The man became worth more to his firm, receiving an advance in pay, and has purchased a home. The house stands there showing the merits of Orrine. We cannot help but feel that we were most fortunate when we secured the agency for this reliable liquor cure."

Orrine is prepared in two forms, No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The guaranteed cure in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 347 Orrine Building, Washington, D. C. Orrine for sale in this city by N. D. Sevia & Son.

They know Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.
